GEC New Structure for Fall 2021

- Changes

- Membership determined by department teaching in the core curriculum.
- Executive Committee: Voting membership is comprised of one voting member per undergraduate serving college. Each college will determine how it selects a voting member.
- Colleges are encouraged to have their own meetings between advisory members and the executive committee member
- 3-year terms. All terms will start new in the fall
- Membership is limited to full time faculty

Program Level General Education Assessment Example

- University of North Carolina, Wilmington
- “No one part of the University Studies curriculum, nor for that matter no one part of the university experience, is solely responsible for helping students to write well, think critically, or conduct responsible inquiry and analysis. These skills are practiced in many courses and uses assignments that are a regular part of the course curriculum.”
- “Through this lens, general education becomes broader than the ‘gen ed curriculum’ and to also include any work within the university experience that helps students achieve these broad learning outcomes.”
- General Education Assessment at UNCW uses assignments that are embedded in many courses, along with common rubrics for most of the Learning Goals.

University Level General Education Assessment Example

- Auburn University University Level
- “The general education outcomes are introduced to students in the Core Curriculum courses and reinforced throughout the courses students take as their major.link”
- Assessment: Auburn “measures the Core Curriculum Student Learning Outcomes through an infrastructure known as the SCORE (Student Core Outcomes and Readiness Evaluation)...students are expected to take a core assessment during their last semester at Auburn, prior to graduating”
- Students will be randomly assigned one test aligned with a General Education Student Learning Outcome based on the last digit of student ID link

Hybrid Course/ Program Level General Education Assessment Example

- Appalachian State University
