

	Radow College of Humanities and Social Sciences
	Sociology and Criminal Justice-undergraduate Sociology, BS

y

- 1: Students will be able to apply core sociological concepts (e.g., race, gender, class) to explain complex social problems and institutions. (intercultural competence skills)
- 2: Students will be able to apply sociological theories to analyze complex problems in society. (critical thinking, perspective taking skills)
- 3: Students will be able to critically evaluate sociological research. (research skills)
- 4: Students will be able to design a research study in an area of choice and explain why various decisions were made. (research design skills)
- 5: Students will be able to demonstrate facility in professional speaking before groups. (professional speaking skills)
- 6: Students will be able to write correctly and document according to proper social science format. (writing skills)