

IRB CITI Training Requirements for Faculty, Staff, Students

Once you have created your account with CITI and affiliated with Kennesaw State University [KSU],

- o Students in Research: This course does not fulfill the IRB requirements for ethics training. ONLY choose this if you are in an undergraduate course that has a class project requirement or are otherwise directed by your instructor or research advisor.
- o Not at this time

OPTIONAL COURSES for Human Subjects Research

Choose all that apply.

Advanced Issues in Informed Consent

Informed Consent and Incidental Findings in Research with Human Subjects

Not at this time

INSTITUTIONAL REVIEW BOARD [IRB] MEMBERS

If you are a member of the IRB, then select the appropriate category below; if you are a student, you are not an IRB member.

Choose all that apply.

IRB Members Basic Course

If you are a member of KSU's Institutional Review Board [IRB], then you need to maintain a current CITI certification in the IRB Members Basic Course as well as the appropriate Social, Behavioral, & Educational or Biomedical Basic Course during your term of service.

IRB Chair

Institutional/Signatory Officials

Not at this time

Once all required modules are completed successfully, you will be shown a "View course completion history and print completion certificates" link. There is also an option to "View/Print" or "Share" your Completion Record of each course at the Courses menu once it has been completed. We recommend that you save the certificate for your records.